

This is in response to a request for additional information from the FEC. Maverick PAC USA (the 'PAC') has no office or other leases. The PAC does not have any obligations to pay utilities. The PAC's records are stored in the outside legal counsel's office. Document storage, including any rent or utilities paid by the legal counsel are included in legal fees and are an ordinary business expense of the outside legal counsel. The PAC does not carry a staff. Any staff is paid as part of the outside legal counsel fees. The PAC is not connected to any other organization.
